Chairman of the Fresno Utility Commission John Hutson and Guest Speakers Debate Nuclear vs. Solar Energy at Chamber's 2007 Economic Reporting Breakfast

Fresno, CA (April 26, 2007) - The Greater Fresno Area Chamber of Commerce and the Economic Development Corporation serving Fresno County will present the 2007 Economic Reporting Breakfast on Friday, April 27 from 7:00 to 9:00 a.m., at TorNino's, 5080 N. Blackstone.

Keynote Speaker John Hutson, President and CEO of Fresno Nuclear Group LLC and Chairman of the Fresno Utility Commission and special guest speakers Mark Stout, promoter of solar in the central valley, Cleantech LLC and Bill McEwen, Fresno Bee Metro Columnist will discuss nuclear and solar energy and what effects it could have on the valley. The debate will also cover the efficiency, safety and political viability of innovative methods for reducing our dependence on fossil fuels.

This event is a long-standing Chamber tradition. Each year the event highlights a different industry, which provides a forum for the community to hear experts discuss the issues surrounding that industry and the impact it has on the economic vitality of our region.

Notes for the Editor

John Hutson, Mark Stout, Bill McEwen and Chamber President/CEO Al Smith will be available for photographs and interviews after the news conference
