MEDIA ADVISORY

Greater Fresno Area Chamber of Commerce, Pacific Gas & Electric, Regional Jobs Initiative and Valley CAN Host the 2007 Energy & Clean Air Business Exposition

Fresno, CA (June 20, 2007) - The Greater Fresno Area Chamber of Commerce, Pacific Gas & Electric, Regional Jobs Initiative and Valley CAN is hosting the 2007 Energy & Clean Air Business Expo on June 21, 2007 at the Fresno Convention Center-Exhibit Hall One from 11:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The event will explain how energy efficiency and clean air values can play vital roles in your business operation. There will be car crushing, hybrid test-drives, prizes, a working lunch, breakout sessions and exhibits. Admission is FREE into the event and the luncheon from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. is $15.00.

The keynote speakers for the luncheon will be Linda S. Adams, Secretary for Environmental Protection & California Environmental Protection Agency along with the honorable Alan Autry, Mayor of the City of Fresno and Bill Jones, Pacific Ethanol Founder and Chairman of the Board. The Mayor and other luncheon speakers, will address how the power of individual actions and personal responsibility will move us forward to better air, better business and a better life. In addition, Valley CAN and the Greater Fresno Area Chamber of Commerce will present recognition awards to businesses that are taking action to promote clean air and energy.

The event will also serve as the Chamber's monthly Membership Mixer for the month of June. Free parking will be available to all attendees located in the Radisson parking lot and the lot on O Street and Ventura.
